

S.A.I.L.O.R

The SAILOR Program, an education program based on a hands on approach to boat building is an acronym for Science and Arts Innovative Learning On the River.

Through building Harbormaster skiffs, SAILOR students learn core STEAM (an Acronym for Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics) concepts.

Students meet every Monday afternoon at the Independence Seaport Museum escorted by Sister Mary McNulty, Principal!